Communism is Denial of the Dignity of the Individual

In America this denial is exemplified in the Closed Shop, the Union Shop, the Income Tax, the O. P A., the F. E. P. C., the F. C. C. and the Pendergast machine.

Military Conscription is the ultimate goal of Communism where the dignity of the Individual disappears, making him a slave of the State.

Letter to the Terrorists of Palestine

Editor's Note: Ben Hecht is a Jewish Jew. He speaks from his Jewish heart. While some Jews may "deplore" the fact of his letting the cat out of the bag, it is high time for the world to awaken to the fact that the propaganda of "innocent, suffering Jews", through the ages has been propaganda, pure and simple.

Ben Hecht shows you the Jew as he is; the naked Jew; the Jewish working of the Jewish heart and the Jewish mind. The natural, unvarnished Jew.

What Hecht says about Americans, all Americans, contributing to terrorist campaigns is equally true. Jews control commerce; they set prices that make profits from which Jewish activities are financed. All of us are "hewers of wood and carriers of water" for the Jews. The shame of it.

Many Gentile Americans MUST contribute to Jewish funds or be put out of business. Alas! Americans! My eye! . . . .

Below are excerpts of Ben Hecht's letter, for your information.

* * * *

My Brave Friends,

You may not believe what I write you, for there is a lot of fertilizer in the air at the moment.

But, on my word as an old reporter, what I write is true.

The Jews of America are for you. You are their champions. You are the grin they wear. You are the feather in their hats.

In the past fifteen hundred years every nation of Europe has taken a crack at the Jews.

This time the British are at bat.

You are the first answer that makes sense—to the New World.

Every time you blow up a British arsenal, or wreck a British jail, or send a British railroad train sky high, or rob a British bank or let go with your guns and bombs at the British betrayers and invaders of your homeland, the Jews of America make a little holiday in their hearts.

Not all the Jews, of course. . . .

Jewish Tories Too!

. . . . Luckily for the Jews, history lightens their shameful antics.

History tells us (a little sadly) that respectability and wealth never line up with a revolution—or a fighting minority.

The American Revolutionary Army under George Washington went a long time without shoes, guns, or food.

The respectable and wealthy American Colonists preferred British admiration to liberty and freedom.

They thought it was bad taste to fight for such things—against the British, of all people. And they wouldn't kick in a dime.

In fact they proved their respectability by playing informer to the British.

You can see how little respectability has changed since 1776.

There's another side to Jewish respectability. I'll tell you a story that illustrates it.

I went to see the Max Schmeling-Max Baer world championship fight with an important Jewish Hollywood tycoon.

He sat beside me for nine rounds without raising his head to look at the ring.

He couldn't bear the spectacle of a Jew being beaten by a German.

But in the tenth round my Hollywood friend looked at the ring.

He not only looked. He jumped and cheered. He cheered so long and so loud that he was hoarse for three days.

Schmeling was on his back and the referee was counting him out. He didn't look good.

Maxie Baer, with the Star of David stitched on his trunks, was upright and grinning in a neutral corner. He looked fine . . . . .

We Are Raising Funds for You

We are ringing doorbells and peddling your cause and passing the hat and trying to lift the heads of our Jewish respectables to have a look at the ring—before Round Ten . . . .

We hear brave men fighting on despite torture, calumny, low supplies and overwhelming odds!

We hear you. We are out to raise millions for you.

And the money is coming in—not from Jews alone but from all Americans.

Because America is not a Fact Finding Commission and a State Department.

America is a dream of freedom in the hearts of its millions and a cheer for all brave men who fight its never ending battle. Hang on, brave friends, our money is on its way.

NO RIGHT TO SPEAK FOR U. S.

To the New York Herald Tribune:

The paid column by Ben Hecht in your issue of today certainly clears the mystery as to where the Jewish extremists get their arms and money. He boasts, in fact, that he is breaking the neutrality laws of this country and claims the sympathy of the entire nation is with his cause. He is entirely wrong on both points. All true Americans are sick of the spectacle of slick propagandists stirring up other people to fight while they wrap themselves in the American flag and stay in safety over here. If Ben Hecht did some fighting, Americans might have some sympathy for him and his aims. As it is, they look on him with the utmost contempt and are especially enraged at his endeavor to prove that Zionist and American aims are synonymous. They are not compatible at all, and he should know that he has no right to speak for America.

E. A. L. BENNETT.

COMMENT BY EDITOR OF NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE

(No one could disagree more with the thinking of Ben Hecht than does the Herald Tribune. We believe, however, that the points of view with which we disagree should have their full chance before our public. We insisted upon modifications in the language of the Hecht statement wherever there were misstatements of fact. We felt a constitutional obligation to the principle of the freedom of the press to print the substance of his plea. Our faith in that principle and in the intelligence of our readers is such that we are confident that it is better to present every side of a national problem in the columns of our paper—in the advertisements as in the news. Our own convictions, in complete opposition to those of Mr. Hecht, we have repeatedly expressed on our Editorial Page.—Ed.)

HECHT PRO-TERRORIST ADVERTISEMENTS REPUDIATED BY JEWISH LABOR

NEW YORK,—A joint statement repudiating pro-Palestine terrorist advertisements recently published by Ben Hecht for the "American League for Free Palestine", was issued by the American Jewish Committee and the Jewish Labor Committee.

The statement deplores the misunderstanding created in the minds of some Americans by these advertisements which purported erroneously to speak for "the Jews of America" in endorsing the Palestine terrorists. It described the Hecht group as "completely unrepresentative of general Jewish sentiment in the United States" and " a small group which speaks for itself only."

No Peace without Decency

Congress of the United States
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Washington, D. C.

Mr. Kurt Mertig, Chairman
Citizens' Protective League, Inc.
317 East 54th Street
New York City, New York

Dear Mr. Mertig:

Received your card in regard to mass meetings. The war is over, and the liquidation and murdering of our vanquished foes should cease both in Europe and in Japan.

The central powers were not alone responsible for bringing on World War II. But for ten men having been born, there never would have been a World War II, and they weren't all foreigners.

Churchill and his gang armed Hitler when they feared France, and the German people had no more to say about it than the American people had to say about the action of our country. It was the heads of governments that started World War II. Our own internationalists assisted Churchill and others to arm Hitler. We also sent scrap iron to Japan at a profit.

Then we promised Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia and other nations our protection, and then turned them over to the former pal of Hitler, Stalin. The thing does not make sense. If we are going to have world peace, we must have world decency and that time has arrived.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM LEMKE

Col. Sanctuary's Libel Suit vs. N. Y. Paper on Trial

Lawyer Klein Fights Hard in Second Libel Trial Against "Post"; FEPC Fight Interests New York

NEW YORK, June 14 (Special).—Col. E. N. Sanctuary's suit against the N. Y. "Post" for libel damages of a half million dollars has consumed two days of preliminary action in the court of the noted judge, Fredinand Pecora, of the N. Y. Supreme Court, sixth division.

This is the second trial of the interesting case, the first having resulted in a mistrial on account of the jury's inability to agree.

On this occasion, after the jury was selected, it was found that too many Jews were on the jury, so the clever legal mind of the prosecuting counsel, Attorney Henry H. Klein, had the jury dismissed and the presiding judge will hear the evidence and pass judgment.

The Post has published some defamatory stories about Col. Sanctuary, one of the persecuted defendants in the Moscow "mass sedition" trial in Washington, the most prominent being one in which the Colonel was accused of being a "draft dodger", although the patriotic Colonel was past 70 years of age at the time.

The trial is expected to consume perhaps all of next week. Unbiased lawyers believe that Col. Sanctuary will obtain a substantial sum for damages. Lawyer Klein is surpassing his customary vehemence and fire in his brilliant prosecution of the case.

The N. Y. "Post" was founded by Alexander Hamilton, but is now owned by the rich and scintillating Mrs. Dorothy Schiff Thackery. Some of its staff writers are slightly left of center, which has given the sprightly evening newspaper a reputation for radical leanings, altho almost as many of its writers appear to be "rightists", including Mrs. Thackrey herself. Among these is Victor Riesel, its labor editor.

"FEPC" HEARINGS IN WASHINGTON

All the forces of "leftwingism" in New York are focusing their attention upon the Senate sub-committee hearings in Washington now under way, to consider the crackpot bill of the eccentric Senator Ives of New York, to foist the infamous red "FEPC" law upon the nation.

Only death can stop a fanatic. The Reds here were cheered by the statement of a representative of Catholic Aux.-Bishop Sheill of Chicago that only PEDDLERS OF PREJUDICE opposed the bill, thus insulting the nearly 2,000,000 Californians who voted AGAINST such a bill last November, defeating it by over 1,000,000 MAJORITY.

The Reds hate Senator Ellender of Louisiana for his masterly opposition to the foolish bill. But there is not enough organizational work for the great American MAJORITY. Minorities rule us.

Hearings will continue next week in Washington.

of stock the United States holds. Practically, because the bank expects to sell most of its bonds on the American market, the president must be an American who commands respect in Wall Street.

President Truman offered the job to Lewis Douglas, former budget director, who preferred to keep his present position as president of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Until the afternoon of June 3 the President had no idea whom he would ask next. Then Secretary of State Byrnes called: What about Eugene Meyer? Like Byrnes, the 70-year-old Meyer is a Bernard Baruch disciple. Mr. Truman liked the idea, but told Byrnes to try it on Fred Vinson, who was then Secretary of the Treasury and chairman of both the bank and the International Monetary Fund. Reached in New York, Vinson gave his blessing.

Next morning at 10:30 the bank's executive directors were called together. Collado nominated Meyer. The other eleven unanimously approved. Meyer was sent for. He expressed his "profound sense of responsibility", and outlined the job:

"The world is well aware today of the food famine. At the same time we must become equally aware that the world is starving for the product of industry. The bank was organized to promote reconstruction and development in both these essential activities."

THE FATHER OF RFC

The world's boss banker is the son of a Jewish immigrant from Alsace who settled in Los Angeles when it was a frontier town. The first Eugene Meyer became a banker by owning one of the few safes in which gold-rush miners could cache their dust. Later he became a representative of the French banking house, Lazard Freres. Young Eugene spent two years at the University of California, took his bachelor's degree at Yale in 1895, and then went to Wall Street where a job awaited him in Lazard Freres' office. Opening his own brokerage office in 1901, Meyer had made a fortune by 1917, when Baruch called him to Washington to head the nonferrous metals division of the War Industries Board.

Later President Wilson made Meyer head of the War Finance Corp. Under Coolidge he served as Federal farm loan commissioner. In 1930, Hoover named him governor of the Federal Reserve Board. A year later, when the distress of industry was growing, Meyer wrote the bill creating the Reconstruction Finance Corp. and served as its first chairman. When Roosevelt became President, Meyer bought the bankrupt Washington Post for $825,000 and continued to play an influential political role from the sidelines. His paper supported most Roosevelt policies during the war and, more recently, the proposed British loan.

SIGNIFICANCE——

The eyes of a hungry world are upon Meyer. He will be a standard bearer of capitalism in a world where state socialism has been gaining rapid headway. One of his biggest jobs will be to try to make the bank truly international by bringing Russia into the organization. He will have primary responsibility for rationing the bank's lending ability among the many countries who want to use it. By his influence over the conditions of International Bank loans, he can promote the creation of exportable wealth rather than aggressive military power, and thus exert a strong influence toward a better world standard of living. No banker ever had a greater opportunity.

WORLD MURDERERS 'HONOR' JEW WAR MAKER

WASHINGTON,—A bust of Bernard M. Baruch, who headed the War Industries Board in World War I and was a White House adviser in World War II, was put in place at the National War College.

The bust was paid for by associates who worked with Baruch in the first war. The presentation was made by Herbert Bayard Swope, of New York, in a ceremony attended by Army and Navy officials.

In a brief address to the assemblage, Baruch warned that the entire nation and not the armed forces alone must be trained for the next war, if it comes.

Baruch declared that the United States already is engaged in a "cold war", and must rely upon its troops and sailors "not only to protect us but to help us avoid entanglements that may prove fatal".

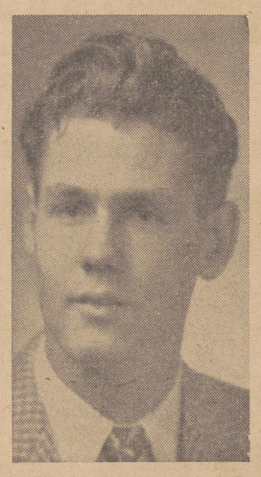
David Graduate Chemical Engineer

Dear Dad:

Within the past three weeks here at school I have been elected to three honorary societies.

The first was Tau Beta Pi, the Phi Beta Kappa counterpart of the College of Engineering. Phi Beta Kappa is restricted to the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences, and consequently no engineering student no matter how capable is eligible for membership. Tau Beta Pi was organized for just such a purpose, to give recognition to outstanding students in all branches of engineering.



DAVID L. de ARYAN

The second was Sigma Xi, an honorary research society whose membership embraces people from all divisions of the University. I am now an associate member because I am yet an undergraduate, but after two years following graduation I may become a full-fledged member with the right to vote. From the Chemical Engineering Department there were only two fellows selected for this honor. An amusing incident took place during my initiation into Sigma Xi. Two San Diegans whom I had known either in high school or State College were being initiated at the same time as I. I had not seen them since leaving San Diego for college. Paul Silva mentioned that his father had known you in San Diego, and that he had been dimly aware that I was going to U. S. C. The other friend, Robert Menzies, I remembered as a studious zoology major at San Diego State. I didn't have much time to gab because of a report I had to finish for the following day.

Last Monday morning a graduate student in the Engineering Bldg. came up and shook my hand congratulating me. I asked him why, and he showed me an announcement in the "Daily Trojan"—the university paper—where the top 10% of graduating seniors had been listed for nomination for Phi Kappa Phi, an all-University honorary society for graduating seniors. My immediate reaction was to wonder how much their initiation was. Already I had to borrow $30 to pay for the first two initiation fees. At my room on Alvarado St., was a letter from Phi Kappa Phi inviting me to join and attend the initiation ceremony to be followed by a dinner. Initiation fee was $10. I haven't paid it yet, but probably will before the deadline.

This business of graduating is fine and dandy, but the expense is terrific when one is on his own. The significance of these societies is not great ten years from now, but when a fellow is just starting and trying to get a job, such things are of value. There is also the pleasant exchange of common interest among the members of these societies, which is the reason for their existence basically.

Love, DAVID.

Editor's Note: David graduated "magna cum laude".

All Wars Are Planned Ahead

By DAN LAMBRECHS

WASHINGTON,—I began to take an interest in international politics as early as 1904, and to become aware of the increasing British influence in our affairs. I predicted war in Europe as early as 1909, after seeing a French film dealing with a fictitious episode of the Franco-Prussian War. I had long before that shed the anti-Kaiser sentiment inculcated in me by propaganda. At the outbreak of the war I began to read weeklies like Vierick's The Fatherland, and the Gaelic American. So I knew that the Russian army had been undergoing maneuvers on the German borders for three days before the Kaiser declared war. The British pretense of having been surprised was exploded by the passage of H. B. M.'s officers from the Orient through Canada early in the spring of 1914. I lived in San Diego then, and citizens of that city had been worried by the presence of Jap warships off Magadelena Bay early that year. They were waiting for the declaration of war and a chance to grab German freighters on their way from the copper port of Santa Rosalia on the Gulf of California.

The Jews became interested in 1916 with the Balfour pledge. Earl Reading (Rufus Isaacs) arrived in New York that fall to enlist the big Jews, and Wilson was completely under their influence. Remember Baruch, Brandeis, that Secretary of War who used to knit—I forget the name. I visited Washington in the fall of 1919 and they were everywhere in the departments. Give them a toehold and they'll work fast.

Good
THOUGHT

"Arakelian" Means "Gospel-Bearer"

"Mr. de Aryan, are you an Armenian?" asked a young man who stuck his head into the door-frame while I was lounging comfortably in an over-stuffed chair in the apartment of one of my subscribers. I had come for the annual renewal, which is a $10 bill that my friend regularly gives me in consideration of the great expense. He knows that the actual production cost is $8, so he adds the $2 to pay for the deficit caused by those who cannot see their way clear to pay more than the $4 per year.

I looked at the face, dark-skinned, evidently an Armenian by his features. He just kept the screen door open enough to have his head in and see me as I was seated near the door. "No, my father was Greek and my mother Polish."

"But your name sounds Armenian, ending in YAN."

"You see, that is MY name. My father's name was Lagenopoulos which he shortened in Roumania to Lagenopol. But that was HIS name, not mine. My name tells who I AM, if you understand the language. When I accepted my present job as an emissary of our sun-workshop, naturally, I had to be called by my RIGHT name and not my father's name."

The young man got interested enough to walk into the room. He had merely intended to ask my friend the address of a neighbor who had moved away, when he saw me seated. So he took the opportunity by the forelock to clear his mind. I don't remember having seen him before, but that does not mean a thing. Thousands know me, especially, since I had been giving radio talks and conducted radio forums several years ago.

"Since you are an Armenian, what do you think of Avak 'The Great' whom Krikor Arakelian had imported to Palm Springs to cure his son Vaughn from epilepsy."

"Bunk. Did he cure him?"

"He got him off drugs, as a starter. He raised real estate values in Palm Springs by bringing a lot of people there. I understand thousands treked to be cured. Real estate, that's the God of Americans."

The Armenian is a rug cleaner. Said he, "I am not a religious person, I detest the hypocrisy of preachers, but the other day I wandered into a Methodist church where I saw a former Marine in uniform hobble in on his crutches. He had lost a leg and his chest was full of medals. No sooner did the preacher spy him than he came down from the pulpit and conducted the Marine to a front seat. Then he shaped his whole sermon around that Marine, praising his heroism as an example of Christianity. Such sermons are offensive to me. That Marine was a killer and he got what the lot of killers is. Religion, especially of Jesus, is very clear on the subject, 'Thou Shalt NOT Kill', now why did this preacher pervert the sense of Jesus to praise the killer? Make a hero of him? It made me disgusted."

"Listen here, my friend. You bought war bonds, did you not?"

"I had to, to stay in business during the war."

"The preacher, too, has to, to get money on his collection plate. I don't see where you are any better than he."

"When we Armenians were sunworshippers we had a better religion. There is more sense to worshipping the Sun without whom there would be no life, than to worship a killer, like that Marine and make a hero of him. Or to look to the Pope as the head of the church for salvation. We had good Thought, good Word, good Deed as our guiding rule."

"Listen here my friend. You are a rug cleaner, I edit THE BROOM to clean out the dirt so that people may learn to think straight again. But I did not buy war bonds to stay in business. I am a sunworshipper, an ARYAN, and I don't sell my birthright for fear of not being in business."

"But you had lots of trouble, they locked you up."

"What of it? Nobody can take my unalienable rights which God gave me. So even in prison I kept it up. Fred was only 15 then, but he, too, is an Aryan, so he kept THE BROOM going till I got out of prison. We never missed an issue. That means GOOD Thought, GOOD Word, GOOD Deed. We were not afraid of the FBI and all hell put together. We ARE Zend-Aryans, and had you been faithful to your ancestral religion, you, too, would have defied all the devils of war, remained an Associate of Mazda on earth and won as we won."

"We Armenians have suffered more than any other minority for our religion. The Turks almost exterminated us. When we were sunworshippers we were successful, when we became Christians, we lost out."

"I wrote once that the Armenians were Mazda-worshippers and that Jesus was an Armenian, not a Jew; you should have seen how Elizabeth Dilling came down on me like a ton of bricks, charging blasphemy. Jesus was a sun-child, not of this world. But you Armenians had become idolators. You worshipped the planetary body of the sun and its material gifts, instead of the Principle of LIFE acting through the sun-body. Jesus came to revive the ancient religion of Mazda who operates through every sun in existence, shedding Light and imparting Life. When your people became 'Christians' they did it because Jesus had cleaned out the idolatry and redeemed the ancient Spirit of Love which gives Light and produces the universes. But as soon as your church joined the Pope's racket, naturally, you traded Jesus for a bunch of Jews. The founder of the Roman Church was the renegade Jew Saulus, not Jesus. Hence the corruption. Tell me, what does Arakelian mean in Armenian?"

"It means the Gospel-Apostle, or preacher, or bearer of good news."

"That's remarkable! The English and the Armenian languages gives a double meaning to the same word. Arak means spirits, like vodka. So Arakelian would mean a spirit dispenser. Yet, you say it means dispensing the good spirit. In English, too, the word spirit means divinity as well as liquor."

"Raki means spirits, but I know the Arakelian family. They were not sellers of raki. Krikor is not an educated person. He introduced the watermelon and the Thompson grape in California. Of course, he exploits about 150 Indians whom he employs on his vineyards. But he is a smart businessman."

"Evidently, too smart for his own good, hence Vaughn entered the family to remind the old man there is no profit in getting people drunk and reaping millions."

"Well, I must go now," said the rug cleaner. He thanked my friends for the information they gave him and I handed him a copy of THE BROOM. "Read the Sun-Work-Shop."

The World Menace of Mongrelism

By C. LEON de ARYAN

Half-truths are the most potent lies, confuse and mislead, where whole lies would easily be detected. All political platforms and promises contain half-truths. The truth-side attracts the gullible, the lack of fulfillment destroys the faith of mankind.

All our organized religious bodies are stocked with half-truths. That which parades itself as Christianity, Judaism, Mohammedanism, or any other sect and racket, for they all are pure rackets, is a jumble of half-truths, superstition, gullibility and ignorance. Because of the half-truths prominently held before the dupes, each gang is able to hold an audience, until they grow up intellectually and spiritually to discover the fraud.

C. Leon de Aryan

By acquainting oneself with the fundamental structure of Life in material expression, one will possess a standard by which to distinguish truth from half-truth. Of course, first, one has to be sick of gullibility. Those who yet prefer to be led by the notion "where ignorance is bliss, it is folly to be wise", naturally, will reject the truth as something fearful, because with it comes the responsibility of living according to the truth and responsibility is something fearful for the immature, the moronic; they prefer to leave the THINKING to the priests, the doctors, the lawyers and the politicians with their bosses, the financiers. And the so-called scientists are nothing but hirelings who sell their minds.

Life as such is produced by the individual person. Without you, there is no life, for you; yet, there is life for me. I am the source of my life. You are the source of yours. Life is Egocentric.

Each one of us can perceive nothing which we are not ourselves. The blind sees not, the dumb reasons not, the tone-deaf knows not melody; hence a musician is one whose inner being lives in a world of music; an artist is one who is full of beauty inside, hence appreciates its expression; a thinker is one living in a world of orderly intelligence unknown to the dumb.

This inner world rises from the primitive functions to the highest divine activities, concepts and expressions. But it all happens inside me, inside you.

As I am constituted inside, do I strive to express in my life that which motivates me. The musician his music, the construction engineer his works that harness the world into his service, the THINKER harmonizes material force with his own will and fathoms the very core of LIFE itself.

Since only he who is musical can express and appreciate music, etc., then, we note that there are classifications.

The general over-all outline is: Etheric forces, such as electricity, atomic and molecular; Solidified material, commonly called matter; and it organic and unorganic.

The etheric forces and unorganic matter are classed in the physical realm. Realms are also called kingdoms. The organic realms, or kingdoms, are plant-life, animal kingdom and finally the divine kingdom, or the Christ-man.

When one has left superstition behind and understands the language employed, then the religious humbug is easily cleared away. Christ, the Son of God, in the image and likeness of his divine Father, our Father, is not one fellow by the name of Jesus of Nazareth, but is every human being who is awakened to the realization that God is our Father. This realization, when natural to us, as it is natural to have and know your own earthly mother,—to feel the living relationship and presence NOW of God, our Father,—this realization comes to him who has developed his inner life to the point where he lives in divine realms. He has entered the Kingdom of God.

Jesus Christ is the living example of how man is when he has reached this stage of unfoldment. He is a co-creator with the Father. He does not propose to steal the products of another to become rich; he produces them himself. This genius is divine. All humanity strives for it. There is no stealing, no killing in the divine kingdom because the joy of living lies in creating, in giving and our divine genius abounds in this power. Thus, PEACE finds its universal foundation, because the divine nature of man is to produce, to enrich, not to rob. This is why the Christ is the Savior.

Now note how strife abounds in the world, producing wars and misery in the wake of plenty. The worst world war in history, where most people got killed, maimed and starved, is War II, because America succeeded to produce MORE than all other nations combined. Without the American plenty World War II could not have been enacted; it was American planes and bombs that ruined the world and spread misery. And here is where Mongrelism comes in.

Mongrelism is the sure sign of lack of spiritual harmony. (To Be Continued)

PETITION

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE U. S. SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED:

Gentlemen:

The undersigned citizens petition Congress to enact legislation to permit during the next five years immigration of five million German nationals to the United States where their skill and industry, especially as artisans, is greatly needed.

Twenty-five millions American citizens of German descent cannot sit idly by any longer to see twenty-seven millions of their kinfolk in Germany die of hunger and cold during the next few years under the Morgenthau Plan re-enforced by the Potsdam Agreement.

Respectfully submitted,

* * * *

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Would you be so good to give space to the two enclosed petitions which I began circulating and on which I have already obtained nearly one hundred signatures and which I shall take to some gatherings at Philadelphia.

I was almost astonished how eagerly people were signing these petitions which seems to me an indication that people now realize that something ought to be done in that way—and it seems that up to now I have been the only one doing it.

Summer heat started suddenly today which will cause a slow-down in meetings and organization work during July and August.

Sincerely and most cordially
KURT MERTIG.

Hon. Harry S. Truman, etc.
Mr. President:

The undersigned American citizens hereby respectfully petition you to convey to the American Military Government (U. S. zone of Germany) and to instruct the U. S. State Department to convey to the other three powers occupying Germany—the wish of American taxpayers that all officials in charge over there cooperate without further delay or handicap in revising immediately the disastrous rules now laid down by them in the administering of German affairs—thus allowing German peace time industry and commerce (including import and export), Traffic, Shipping, Deep Sea Fishing, Agriculture, Forestry, Coal and Ore Mining, Housing, etc., to return to their ratio of pre-war activity, thus giving a chance to the many millions of unemployed, ill-fed, ill-clothed and ill-housed Germans to earn again by their work, their daily bread (not to say their daily butter) instead of being compelled, as during the last two years, to attempt to subsist on the starvation rations imposed upon Germany by the inhuman Morgenthau Plan, and under the Potsdam Agreement sustaining that plan.

It has become long evident that the Morgenthau Plan was not based on a desire for peace, but on a hysterical desire for vengeance. By abandoning that infamous plan, and by allowing German nationals again to earn their own living by working in their notably efficient pre-war occupations, the American taxpayers will, within a reasonable time, be relieved of the enormous expense of feeding the German nation which state threatens to continue indefinitely, and will finally lead to the complete bankruptcy of the United States.

America supplies nearly all the food stuffs going into Germany's three Western zones of occupation (the American, the British and the French), but since the German people manifestly do not receive these supplies, the American taxpayers are entiled to know what becomes of these food supplies which are intended by the American people for the saving of the German people from starvation.

Respectfully submitted,

NATIONAL MADHOUSE

By MADISON MONROE

WASHINGTON,—In a speech opposing the Voice of America, an expensive Administration scheme to radio a lot of silly chaff to Russia and other countries, Ohio Congressman-at-Large Bender characterized the Truman doctrine as "draining off the resources of the United States to support every reactionary government in the world."

UN-AMERICAN FOREIGN COUNTRIES

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs is without a doubt the most un-American group in Congress, even more so than the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations. It is composed of 14 Republicans and 11 Democrats. The Chairman is the rather notorious internationalist-minded Charles A. Eaton (R-NJ) a buddy of Frank Hague, who is now serving his 12th term. He rules the Committee with an iron hand. Sol Bloom (D-NY) formerly chairman, is now ranking member on the minority side which also includes fellow-traveler Helen Gahagan Douglas of California. Only three of the members voted against the Greco-Turkish handout: Robert B. Chipperfield (R-Ill); Lawrence H. Smith (R-Wisc) and Joseph L. Pfeifer (D-NY).

Since then the committee has made a unanimously favorable report on the Voice of America bill, urged by the New Dealers, to continue spending taxpayers' money on an expensive radio program in foreign languages to foreign countries. These programs in the past have been shown to be silly and strongly impregnated with Red propaganda.

SANHEDRIN RULES REPUBLICANS

The following was delivered on the floor of Congress the other day by Rep. Harold Knutson (R-Minn) fighting chairman of the Ways and Means Committee who, by the way, voted against the Greco-Turkish handout:

"I would like somebody to tell me what single New Deal function we've abolished since we Republicans took over. During the election campaign the Democrats said the only thing we were promising was that we could run the New Deal more effectively. It seems to me that if we continue as we are doing, the only thing we can say to the voters in 1948 is that we can run the New Deal more cheaply. You may want to go back and face your people with that story. I don't. And if we do, we won't win in 1948."

On the same day recently in the Washington Court House three cases involving Communists were up, Gerhard Eisler, Leon Josephson and Eugene Dennis, respectively two Jews and a Gentile, all for openly defying the authority of the United States Government. Involved in these were eight lawyers all of whom were Jews. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been raised to defend these people through nationwide defense fund appeals. Special precautions were taken against the use of any of this to corrupt jurors in the Eisler case.

In all arguments the Jews leaned heavily on the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution, a document which is the veritable foundation stone of the governmental system, but which these Communists by word and deed are trying to hamstring and destroy.

"Henry Wallace is going to speak at Watergate the 16th."

"Who's he going to speak to? The niggers."

"I guess so. And the Jews and Commies."

"They're the same thing, ain't they?"

"I guess they are. What's he going to talk about? Russia?"

"I suppose. Why the hell don't he go there if he likes it so much?"

"Are you kiddin'? With his gripin', he wouldn't last ten minutes over there."

The Boston HERALD, one of Boston's leading daily newspapers and perhaps the most conservative daily newspaper in the Boston zone, recently took a poll of public opinion concerning various reactions to various radio programs. The pollsters, among other things, raised the question: What program do you consider as having the worst influence and doing the most harm? The Boston public, in responding to this poll, revealed that they considered the Walter Winchell broadcast the most harmful program on the radio. A similar poll should be taken in every major community. It might bring out some real enlightening truth concerning this character assassin.

Parasites Produce Communism

Will military training "protect" America against Communism? Will wolves protect the the sheep? Training young men and women to be wolves, will that produce a nation free from parasites?

One cannot blink the fact that Communism in Germany, France, Russia and in the guise of "liberal new deal" in America, came as the natural reaction to despotic exploitation, to feudalism in government and economics. It is the futile revolt of the serfs. And as long as we uphold the system of exploitation, the doctrine of parasitism of the "better minds" or by a "better class", whether it be "better" by "divine right" by brute power, or wily minds, the backwash is inevitable and the backwash is Communism. This makes it perfectly clear where the cause of Communism lies.

Arming America to fight Russia will not stop nor eliminate Communism, on the contrary, it will make it universal. For Communism is dictatorship by a few wily brutes and military training toward blind obedience of orders of "high-ranking" brutes, produces exactly what Gen. George Marshall stands for. This made Pearl Harbor possible.

Marshall is not an American, not a free, intelligent, thoughtful American, but a military brute who has not the least understanding of the principles of American government. While chief of staff, ostensibly to protect America, instead of being loyal to America he was loyal to his Commander-in-Chief, FDR, who wanted war with Japan, who wanted Japan to attack that, then, he may go before Congress and pretend that war was started by Japan. Thus Marshall, true to his military training, betrayed America because his Commander-in-Chief so planned.

Military training means you will kill your own mother and father upon command of a "superior" officer, and that is Communism. A "good Communist" must denounce his own parents who don't think as the politburo prescribes. Hence Marshall "thought" as his Commander-in-Chief wanted him to "think" and Pearl Harbor was produced with all the atrocities necessary to justify FDR's "foresight" of going to war.

Militarism is parasitism to the nth degree. Billions upon billions worth of goods, products and billions of human lives have been sacrificed by mankind to this parasite for thousands of years. Has it produced peace or security? No, it produced Communism and more propaganda for militarism.

Where, then, is security? If not to be found in violence, individual or mass-violence, where does one find it?

The answer is: GOD.

The science of religion, when true, teaches that all we see is created and controlled by infinite LOVE and Wisdom. Hence, there is a provision by which those who adhere to the law of LOVE and loyalty to the Creator become immune to the power of the brutes.

If one told ignorant savages that radio is not "magic" of the unseen spirits, one would meet with as much understanding as one meets when speaking to military savages that God rules supreme, that moral law works as effectively and precisely as gravitation and all known laws of material science. Yet, that is the truth. It took just a few ingenius minds to discover the "magic" of radio and it takes all of man's ingenuity to discover the workings of moral law and of that provision by which, as one obeys it, he becomes master of his destiny in defiance of all brutality.

Those who can think that far are foolish to submit to militarism and forego the company of the Associates of God. The world is divided in two great camps. Those whose loyalty is to God, first; and those who hold with the Devil and his might through the lust to kill.

If any man were to spend as much effort as is spent by militarists to train to kill in blind obedience to "superior" orders, to train daily to obey the Christ and take chances on being killed in HIS Service, rather than in the Devil's service, the results would be amazing.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Enclosed find $2.00, one for three months' renewal of THE BROOM, the other dollar to your own use. Would like to do better, but so many families in Germany wait for a little help. Wish we could do something about this condition, but the time will alter many things, for with our desire for a better world, someday it will be. Thank you for so many encouraging words and articles.

Yours Truly, J. & J. L.

Five to ten million Germans are expected to complete their march to the grave by starving to death. Rations have been reduced to 700 calories, which is about one-fourth to one-fifth the normal diet. This is part of a deliberate Red effort to wipe out the German race before the United States wakes up to the importance of having Central Europe as a bulwark againt Stalin and Communism.

Mr. C. Leon de Aryan:

Am enclosing a check of $8.00 for subscription starting June 13th. This amount, $8, was stated in one of the papers to be the actual cost of production. Yours sincerely, I. B.

Who Controls White House and U. S. Attorney General?

PHILADELPHIA,—William Gerald Bishop, ardent opponent of Communism at a time when it was neither fashionable nor politically expedient to expose the New Deal-protected Reds, has been held in uninterrupted "detention" for the past five and one-half years, under a warrant issued by the Immigration Department in 1940 which contained charges based upon "opinion" and the unsustained allegation that he is an alien. In reality, Mr. Bishop was born at Salem, Massachusetts, the illegitimate son of an American father and an English mother, and has never petitioned for nor accepted the nationality of any other country.

In 1942, Bishop was ordered interned as an alleged enemy (Austrian) alien. He has been since detained at three different internment camps: Bismarck, N. D.; Kennedy, Texas; and Ft. Stanton, N. M. He has consistently been forbidden to approach any U. S. Court, and was moved from the jurisdiction of the U. S. Court at Bismarck, N. D. at one time when, against orders, he succeeded in contacting the same. While interned, he was at the same time held under bond of $5000 and, altho detained, was forced to pay charges on the same.

In 1944, while interned at Ft. Stanton, N. M., Bishop succeeded in contacting Federal Judge Colin Neblett, of the U. S. District Court at Santa Fe. He obtained a writ of habeas corpus and was ordered freed under the same on December 11, 1944. No sooner out of sight of the Court, he was re-arrested by Immigration authorities, taken to Albuquerque jail, and then returned to Ellis Island, N. Y., in January of 1945.

This arrest was made on an Alien Warrant, a charge that Immigration authorities had failed to sustain in the Santa Fe Court. Bishop has since been confined at Ellis Island, cell 218. His outstanding bond of $5000 was cancelled in December of 1944, altho he had been forced to keep the same posted during the three years of his illegal detention. He has thus been imprisoned without bond for some 30 months. Repeated petitions to Immigration Commissioner Ugo Carusi, and to Attorney General Tom Clark, have been ignored.

In a letter to Senator Chapman Rivercomb, Chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Immigration, Mr. Bishop has written:

"Mr. Senator, during these nearly six years of uninterrupted 'detention' on one charge or another (first 'alien enemy', then 'alien'), I have lost my savings and everything else I once owned; my apartment, furniture, a piece of land I owned in Pennsylvania, and even my personal possessions like suits and a multitude of personal articles. My attempts to save these things through writing to friends, asking them to arrange for their care and safekeeping, were frustrated thru the censorship, which refused to forward any business letters I wrote from the various detention stations. I am 47 years old, and a pauper."

NO U. S. COURT REVIEW IN JEW-YORK

In the same letter to Senator Rivercomb, Mr. Bishop tells of the abuse he has suffered under "administrative detention", a type of imprisonment which the U. S. District Court in New York City has made it a "practice" not to review. Thus, it is impossible for him to appeal to a U. S. Court judge in the matter of bond, no matter how long he is detained.

Specific abuses mentioned in Mr. Bishop's letter, among others, are: confiscation of personal mail; confiscation of funds, without receipt; verbal abuse of himself and his visitors; body search; awakened and "checked" at night, every hour, for weeks on end; has been forbidden to write to members of Congress; deprived of fresh air, sunlight and exercise for months on end (for 5 months in a row in one instance); consultations with counsel subjected to oral censorship; intimidation of visitors; physical beatings administrated by Ellis Island guards; and more.

On April 10, 1947, Senator William Langer of North Dakota introduced a bill into Congress for Mr. Bishop's relief. This is numbered S-1083, and asks for a full investigation of the case by Senate Subcommittee on Immigration.

A fund for Bishop's defense is being set up here, details of which can be secured by writing to Mrs. Lillian Parks, Secretary of the Natl. Blue Star Mothers of America, 5200 Warrer St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Three attorneys who are working on the case have accepted no fees, but their traveling expenses to and from Ellis Island and Washington, plus the heavy costs involved in a Supreme Court appeal, cannot be expected to come from their pockets alone.

Chandler On Trial for Treason . . . Emma Goldman On Bloated Union Treasuries

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, June 14 (Special)—The New Deal Administration has placed Douglas Chandler, American, on trial for "treason" in Boston, Mass., in the first such prosecution in New England since the 1790s.

In Germany, before and during the war, Chandler—using the name "Paul Revere"—spoke in English by short wave to America, giving his views of the war and urging us to stay out of it. After the war started he tried to obtain a swift peace that would be fair to both sides and prevent the chaos now ruining Europe.

Only a "New Deal" mind is capable of giving such a "constructive twist" to the definition of TREASON. Our Founding Fathers tried to write into the Constitution a definition which would make such trials impossible.

If they had meant to allow "free speech" to be considered "treason", they would have so written it. And if they had, then the later adoption of the First Amendment, guaranteeing freedom of speech, would have modified it.

Real Americans must know that no American loses the U. S. right of "free speech" when he talks in a foreign land.

If Chandler had spoken to the Germans and had given them valuable war secrets, his remarks would have been punishable and might be construed as some form of treason.

I invite my readers to go to the library and get Dr. I. W. Andrews' "Manual of the Constitution", and read pages 204 to 209 on treason.

On page 205 he says: "It has been decided by the Court that there must be an actual LEVYING OF WAR; that a conspiracy to subvert the government by force is NOT treason."

As for giving "aid and COMFORT" to the enemy, the acts must be physical. When our Fathers wrote the Constitution, the word "comfort" meant such things as food for the enemy.

My grandfather's table grace, "Bless to our use these table COMFORTS", was handed down from his own Revolutionary fighter grandfather. The Century dictionary says that such usage has now become obsolete. But the word "comfort" in the Constitution must be considered in its 1787 meaning.

I heard Chandler on a number of occasions in 1941-42. His German short-wave program under the name "Paul Revere" was listed in the weekly "Radio Guide".

I enjoyed his talks. I never heard one word of disloyalty to America. When he classed F. D. Roosevelt's acts as bordering of "treason", many of the best Amercians agreed with him, and approved his right so to speak.

We hope Chandler will be found "not guilty", for to make such a twist of the language of the Constitution as to class free speech as "treason" would be to nullify the glorious First Amendment.

EMMA GOLDMAN ON "MONEY"

The late anarchist, Emma Goldman, was, in appearance, an "Aryan", or "Nordic", with blue eyes, sandy blond hair, fair complexion and a somewhat retrousse, feminine nose.

Despite her many eccentricities, this woman of Russian Jewish origin, occasionally gave utterance to a profound truth. Here is an instance: She wrote:

"SYNDICALISM objects to a large union treasury, because money is as corrupting an element in the ranks of labor as it is in those of capitalism . . . .

"Large treasuries . . . . create class distinctions and jealousies within the ranks of labor. . . . . The worker whose organization has a large purse considers himself superior to his poor brother, just as he regards himself as better than the man who earns 50 cents less a day."

What would she say if she could see the giant "corrupting" treasuries of big unions now? Perhaps she had read Montesquieu, who pointed out that excessive gold holdings are corruptive of governments and tend toward despotism.

F. B. I. PROTECTED FRAUDS IN MISSOURI

WASHINGTON,—Sen. James P. Kem (R-Mo) said the FBI was quicker and more thorough in investigating alleged election frauds in Kansas City, Kan., than it was in inquiring into similar charges in President Truman's home political bailiwick, Kansas City, Mo.

He based his charge on a letter from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, dated June 5, which said the FBI had investigated the Kansas election and found no violations.

"Constipation is one of the greatest causes of disease, misery, inefficiency and premature senility, and should be most earnestly combatted," says Dr. Kellogg of Battle Creek Sanitarium fame.

Is the Sanhedrin Making It Impossible For Jews to Live as Jews?

By HENRY H. KLEIN

(Copyright 1946 by Henry H. Klein)

Since the dawn of history, Jews have been driven from pillar to post all over Asia, Africa and Europe. They have never been permitted to settle permanently in any one place; not even in Palestine from which country they were driven many times.

This has been so, not because Jews are inherently obstreperous, but because they have been misled by mad leaders. The Jews are the victims of their mad leaders today.

Before Moses' time, Jews were numerous in Egypt. In Psalm 105, chapter 38, King David of Palestine, is quoted as saying "Egypt was glad when they departed". Their so-called leaders had provoked violence. Six hundred thousand left under Moses who was compelled to slaughter some of them in order to establish his rule. Moses, like David, lamented their disobedience.

Jewish politicians brought hardship and trouble to their kinsmen many times. They constantly strove for power and provoked many tribes and nations against them before the Christian era. They finally succumbed to Rome in the first and second centuries A. D. That was the beginning of the dispersion of Jews over the earth.

Jewish politicians were not always laymen. They were sometimes just plain rabbis who set themselves up as political bosses and exacted obedience and tribute from their following. For several hundred years the heads of rabbinical colleges ruled by the Talmud which they themselves created and made Jews of the world support them and their institutions.

This produced orthodox exclusiveness which has been the bane of Jews for centuries. It created the ghetto—a self-imposed quarantine against other faiths—and it enabled Jewish politicians to keep their control. It resulted many times in the eviction of Jews from most of the cities and countries of Europe.

This practice of Jewish exclusiveness is being continued in the United States. A handful of Jews have set themselves up as leaders and have created instruments of control never before known. They created propaganda machines through which they keep Jews herded together and in fear so that they can better shake them down to keep the propaganda machines going and their graft flowing. These propaganda machines are the hundreds of books pamphlets and periodicals published by the hundreds of so-called pro-Jewish organizations and distributed regularly to Jews to keep them immersed in so-called Jewish affairs. Through these propaganda machines they keep a fake anti-Semitism alive and stir up racial animosity.

Jews did not come to the United States in order to become more Jewish. They did not come here because they preferred an American ghetto. They came to breathe the free air they were not permitted to breathe in Europe and elsewhere. They came to the United States to better their lot, not to be oppressed and shakendown by self-constituted leaders who hold them in subjection through fear and skin the financial flesh from their bones. They have been welded into a mass solely for better exploitation.

This has been accomplished in many ways through many agencies. The aim of early Jewish philanthropists was to scatter Jews from the old world throughout the new world. The hope was that they might become assimilated and escape rabbinical domination. Most of the new immigrants ultimately gravitated to the big cities and became the prey of those who took control over them.

The propaganda and shakedown operations by so-called Jewish leaders has been highly successful and the "take" has been large. Jews are shaken down regularly for many so-called Jewish purposes. Palestine is only one of them. Every Jewish home is flooded with written and printed requests for money and telephonic and personal solicitations are frequent. Jewish merchants are a special target. In all, Jews in the United States contribute at least a quarter of a billion dollars a year for so-called Jewish purposes.

Jews in the United States have been drilled into the notion that they are Jews, first, and citizens afterwards. They have been propagandized into the belief that they are citizens of a dream nation in Palestine and that from that nation will go forth the voice of world authority. The organizations responsible for instilling this belief are run primarily by Zionists. Zionism is not a spiritual and cultural program. It was once the dream of orthodox Jews to spend their declining years in Palestine. That dream is no longer possible. Palestine is run by political gangsters, backed by professional Zionists who have large financial investments there. The Dead Sea alone holds fabulous chemical and mineral wealth which is being extracted by Zionists from Great Britain and the United States; backed by the Rothschilds and Rockefellers. These Zionists are members of the Jewish Sanhedrin which aims to fulfill the last step in the plan of the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" by taking over Palestine for the beginning of world rulership.

If Palestine becomes a Jewish nation what becomes of Jews in other countries? Do they automatically become citizens of Palestine? Do they retain their citizenship in other countries also? Or will all national lines be wiped out and Jews, Christians, Mohammedans et al become citizens of one world, with only one religion? Will the program of universal enslavement outlined in the Protocols, then begin?

What is the purpose of all this political madness? Do Sanhedrin politicians want to make it impossible for Jews to live anywhere as Jews, such as happened in Europe many times during the past fifteen hundred years? The fact that Jewish activities have been spreading during the past half century only means that they can be wound up sooner. They came to a head in Europe during the past ten years. Does the Sanhedrin want them to come to a head in the United States? If Jews need a warning they should read Graetz's History of the Jews published by the Jewish Publication Society, fifty years ago. The Sanhedrin today is the counterpart of the crooked and murderous Sanhedrin that operated in Palestine two thousand years ago. The present Sanhedrin is just as mad for power and will commit the same world-shaking crime over again, unless stopped in its mad career. The Jews should take warning or they may be unable to live as Jews anywhere, hereafter.

Wall Street Wreckers and Willing Willkie

NEW YORK,—Morgan & Company is considered the dominant voice in Wall Street. Other potent voices in addition to the Chase National Bank are such internationalist bankers as Lazard Freres, Lehman Brothers, and Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

The recent appointment of J. J. McCloy, former Wall St. lawyer and former assistant secretary of war, to succeed Eugene Meyer, Washington publisher, as head of the World Bank was reported here as a moving out of Lazard Freres and a moving in of Chase National.

These international bankers have great power in groups which profit from foreign trade. These groups include the motion picture industry, which regards foreign sales as the chief source of profit and American sales largely as meeting high production costs. Other groups interested in foreign trade include machine tool manufacturers, automobile manufacturers, oil industry, producers of capital goods in general, and exporters of farm products. Insurance interests, which the bankers control, are interested in bolstering those who profit in foreign trade.

In the early days of the New Deal, Wall Streeters were reputedly on the outs with the administration. President Roosevelt had called for driving the money changers out of the temple. Nevertheless, J. P. Morgan himself was invited to the White House at least once for private consultation with the President. He was discovered leaving the executive mansion late one night.

In 1937 when the New Deal was face to face with a business recession President Roosevelt began summoning business leaders quietly and even publicly to the White House. From the fall of 1937 Wall Streeters were accustomed to having the door of the White House opened to them.

Lamont began as a White House visitor at that time. Owen D. Young and a host of leading business leaders paraded down Pennsylvania Avenue to the nation's most famous address. At the same time British titles began appearing in increasing numbers on the calling list at the executive mansion.

At this time President Roosevelt shifted his attention from the domestic to the international scene. He was persuaded that domestic recovery could come through international stabilization.

Within a year Wall Streeters began crowding into the New Deal. Representatives of financial interests and their law firms began easing out planners of the new economy.

By 1940 Wall Street which had opposed Roosevelt in 1932 and 1936, was working for the third term. Roosevelt and Wall Street have been widely credited with formulating the strategy that won Wendell Willkie, a former Socialist and a former Democrat, the Republican nomination.

Willkie was known to Wall Street as as much of an interventionalist as the President was, even at the time the barefoot boy of Wall Street was denouncing war in his campaign. At a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Reid of the internationalist New York Herald Tribune on June 4, 1940, Thomas Lamont was invited to look over two Republican Presidential possibilities — Willkie and Senator Taft (R-Ohio). The guest of honor was the late Philip Kerr, ambassador known in England as Lord Lothian.

Lewis Douglas, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, made a speech advocating United States entry into the war, according to a published account of the dinner. Taft differed with Douglas but Willkie indorsed his stand unqualifiedly. Three days later Willkie made an isolationist speech in Brooklyn which ten months later he told a senate committee was merely "campaign oratory". Within the month of the dinner Willkie, an unknown, had "captured" the Republican nomination.—Walter Trohan, Chicago Tribune.

"VIRTUES OF COMMUNIST WAY OF LIFE"

Dear Editor:

If a heart can shed tears—mine shed them for joy when I read of the silent walkout made by four students at Washington High School in Los Angeles as a result of being subjected by the school administration to attend the lecture of Russian-born Mrs. Aleksandra Lewis in which she praised the virtues of the Communist way of life.

It is one of the most significant occurrences to take place in a long while because it assures us that OVERNIGHT a miracle can destroy all the ugliness, wickedness, atheism, and dictatorialism of the Communist philosophy, even though it has flourished so prominently for 14 years.

F. D. R. was the only President in power during my "growing-up years". I too, had to listen to pro-Roosevelt instruction in school. I was fed and nurtured on the "greatness" of "that man in the White House". Yet, first with childish rebellion and later by means of intellectual analysis I realized his program, whether directly or indirectly applied, was the foundation of Communism.

May true Americans continue to defend and highlight the beauty and divinity of our inspired constitution with the same quiet dignity shown by these four students. What a sharp contrast to the crude savage-like yelling of the noisy picket-line demonstrations employed by the opposition!
